

Madagascar Tree Boa

Habitat: Forests near water in Madagascar

Size: 6-7 feet long; 13-16 pounds

Life Span: Up to 20 years

Diet: Small mammals, birds, reptiles and frogs

Reproduction: 4-16 live young are born

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

✓ Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Due to:
Habitat loss

Did You Know?

When a female is pregnant she turns a darker color believed to help absorb more heat and keep the young warm. After giving birth, the female lightens in color.