

Amur Tiger

Habitat: Fall and Winter: taiga forests

Summer: Floodplain forests along the Russian/China border

Size: Females: 200-400 pounds;
Males: up to 650 pounds

Life Span: 15-20 years

Diet: Red deer, wild boar, small game

Reproduction: 2-4 cubs born after 100 days. Females teach their cubs to hunt and survive in the wild for the first 2 years of life.

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

✓ Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Due to: habitat loss,
inadequate prey,
poaching

Did You Know?

Amur tigers are excellent swimmers and can eat up to 100 pounds of meat in one sitting!

They have longer canine teeth than any other predator!