

Black and White Ruffed Lemur

Habitat: Rainforests in Madagascar

Size: 22 inches long with a 2 foot tail; 7-10 pounds

Life Span: About 18 years

Diet: leaves and fruit

Reproduction: Usually twins are born after a 90-100 day gestation period

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

✓ Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Did You Know?

Lemurs produce deep, barking alarm calls to defend their territories and can be heard from great distances.

Due to:
Slash and burn agriculture, logging and mining. Hunting is also an issue.