

Vietnamese Pot-bellied Pig

Habitat: Woodlands, swamplands in Southeast Asia

Size: 14-18 inches tall; 70-150 pounds

Life Span: 10-20 years

Diet: Leafy greens, wild vegetables, roots, grasses, shrubs, insects, eggs and even small snakes

Reproduction: 5-6 piglets born after a 114 day gestation

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Threats:

Humans and large carnivores

Did You Know?

Pigs have a very large digestive tract so they can eat large amounts of food at a time. They lack sweat glands so they wallow in the mud to cool off and protect their skin from the sun and insects.