

Bornean Orangutan

Habitat: Mature rainforests on the island of Borneo in Asia

Size: 3 - 4.5 feet tall, females: 90-150 pounds

Males: 180-275 pounds

Life Span: 35-40 years

Diet: fruit, young leaves, bark, flowers, insects, and bird eggs

Reproduction: One offspring born every 3-6 years. Clings to mom for first 2 years of life.

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

✓ Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Did You Know?

Orangutans share approximately 97 % of their DNA with humans!

Due to: habitat destruction, poaching and the harvesting of trees for palm oil