

Canadian Lynx

Habitat: Coniferous forests in Canada and Alaska (small population in Rocky Mountain areas)

Size: 3 ½ foot long with a 2-5 inch tail

Life Span: Around 15-20 years

Diet: small mammals and birds

Reproduction: 1-3 kittens are born after a 63-70 day gestation period

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Threats:

Trapping, habitat destruction and competition with coyotes for prey.

Did You Know?

The Canada lynx has an excellent sense of sight. It can spot a mouse at 250 feet!