

Eastern Gray Kangaroo

Habitat: forest, woodland and shrub land of Australia

Size: Up to 6-7 feet tall

Life Span: 10-20 years

Diet: grasses, leaves, tree bark

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Reproduction: A single joey is born after a 30-36 day gestation but continues to grow in the pouch for 5-6 months.

Did You Know?

The Kangaroo's bounding gate allows them to cover 25 feet in a single leap and to jump 6 feet high!

Threats: Habitat loss through agricultural clearing