

Southern White Rhino

Habitat: Savannah woodlands and grasslands in South Africa, Namibia, Zimbabwe and Kenya.

Size: 11-16 feet long, 5-6 feet tall, and can weigh up to 4 tons

Life Span: approximately 40 years

Diet: short turf grasses

Reproduction: 1 born after a 16-18 month gestation

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

✓ Near Threatened

Least Concern

Due to: Poaching, habitat destruction and drought

Did You Know?

Rhino horns are made of keratin, the same material that makes up our hair. There is no medicinal value to this horn.