

Bennett's Wallaby

Habitat: Timberlands and brush thickets in Australia

Size: 3 feet high; weigh 30-40 pounds

Life Span: Up to 12 years

Diet: Grasses, roots, foliage, bark and buds

Reproduction: After a 30 day gestation and 4-6 more months in the pouch growing, 1-2 young will emerge

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Threats:

Can be commercially harvested for their meat

Did You Know?

Wallabies can make long, bouncing hops of 20 feet!