

Visayan Warty Pig

Habitat: Dense forested areas in the central Philippines

Size: 1-2 feet tall and 3 feet long; 45-110 pounds

Life Span: 10-15 years

Diet: Fruit, vegetables, roots, tubers and worms

Reproduction: 1-3 piglets after a 118 day gestation period.

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

✓ Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Due to:
Over-hunting, habitat loss and hybridization with feral pigs.

Did You Know?

Males have large crests and manes that grow very long during breeding season. It resembles a mohawk!