

Green Tree Python

Habitat: Rainforests in Australia and New Guinea

Size: Average 5-6 feet long, up to 7 feet

Life Span: About 20 years

Diet: Tree lizards, birds and small mammals

Reproduction: 6-30 eggs take about 40-65 days to hatch

Conservation Status

Extinct

Extinct in the wild

Critically Endangered

Endangered

Vulnerable

Near Threatened

Least Concern

Did You Know?

Juvenile green tree pythons hatch a yellow or maroon color to help warn predators away. On average, it takes six to eight months for them to change to green.

Threats:
The capture of wild specimens for the pet trade.